STATE SEEKS TO HALT PENINSULA CRASH TOLL

Three New Officers Coming Here at Once or by January 1st

"DEFINITE expectation" that the San Mateo county traffic squad will be brought to full strength by the addition of at least three permanent officers to replace those temporarily on duty here was expressed today by Theodore Roche, director of the state department of motor vehicles.

Roche pointed out that the curtailed finances of the department made it impossible to fill the San Mateo county vacancies in the past, but he gave assurance that the demands probably could be met at once or shortly after the first of the year.

"I, of course, realize that San Mateo county is peculiarly situated," Roche said, "and that, if possible, its full quota of highway patrol officers should continuously be maintained. Keeping in mind our financial position, it was our intention to permit the existing vacancies to continue until approximately January 1, 1934, and then, if our funds permitted, to fill them at once.

"For the purpose of adequately policing the Bayshore, which has recently been the scene of a number of accidents, we have re-inforced the San Mateo squad by temporarily assigning to it highway patrol officers from other counties where, because of the approaching winter, their services were not absolutely essential.

"During the past several weeks, I have had several conferences with Chief E. Raymond Cato respecting conditions upon the highways adjacent to San Francisco, but more particularly the Bayshore, and I am this day (Tuesday) issuing an order directing that all highway patrol officers functioning upon the Bayshore shall not only exercise the greatest degree of diligence in enforcing our traffic laws, but that they shall particularly direct their attention to every operator of a motor vehicle who exceeds the legal speed limit.

"The intensive and continuous enforcement of this phase of our traffic laws will undoubtedly tend to reduce accidents to a minimum."

Roche's views were expressed in a letter sent to Col. Frederick Peterson of Burlingame, San Mateo county assemblyman, who went to Sacramento on Monday to interview Chief Cato and who conferred with Roche yesterday.

Peterson demanded immediate action because of the four highway deaths early Sunday in his home community and the 60 other deaths that have occurred since the first of the year.

San Mateo county's present force consists of 13 regular officers and a captain. Three officers from other counties are temporarily on duty.

In addition, Capt. Paul Perussina has asked for 11 more permanent officers so that the county will have a regular squad of 24 officers and a captain.

Ex-President In Answer to The Governor

Executive's Advocacy Of Lynch Mobs Deplored

The calmness of Thanksgiving was broken today by an exchange of verbal shots between Ex-Pres. Herbert Hoover and Governor Rolph in a controversy growing out of the lynchings at San Jose.

Mr. Hoover and 25 other prominent men and women of the state signed a statement deploring the mob's action in connection with the Hart kidnapers, and condemning Governor Rolph for his laudation of the lynchers.

Rolph retaliated in a statement recalling the clash of troops with bonus marchers in Washington. He was quoted as follows:

"The reported criticism from Hoover on the San Jose case recalls to me the shooting which occurred near the White House during the bonus army march," Rolph declared to International News Service.

"It would have been far better had not the troops been ordered out with resultant mowing down of marchers in the streets of Washington. I have never forgotten that tragedy.

"That was the one uppermost thought in my mind when I refused to order out the state militia to San Jose, where citizens may have been shot down near Mr. Hoover's home town.

"There was no bloodshed in my action, as compared to the situation near Mr. Hoover's White House. We fared much better in San Jose."

To this Mr. Hoover replied:

"One trouble with Governor Rolph's statement is his gross ignorance of the facts. Not a single shot was fired, not a single person was injured by the troops called out in Washington in response to the appeal of the local authorities. The troops ended the bloodshed which was then in progress through conflicts between rioters and police.

"The issue here is plain and not to be obscured by such misstatements. The governor has been advocating lynch law. It is a subversion of the very spirit of organized society. It is un-American. It is a reflection on the state of California. It is not supported by its citizens."

CALLED 'SHAMEFUL'

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30 (UP)—Former Pres. Herbert Hoover and 25 other civil leaders today severely criticized Gov. James Rolph Jr. for his laudation of the lynchings of two kidnap-slayers.

The statement signed by the group intimated that the hangings were "humiliating and shameful" and might have been prevented "if assistance had been given to the local officers." Rolph admitted that he had refused to send National Guard troops to guard the San Jose jail where Thomas Thurmond and John Holmes, the confessed slayers of Brooke Hart, were held.

The statement was signed by a group of college presidents, bankers, chamber of commerce officials, religious leaders and others.

Those who signed are W. H. Crocker, Dr. Aurelia H. Reinhart, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, Rabbi Irving F. Reichert, Herbert Hoover, Rev. Edgar A. Lowther, Rev. C. S. S. Dutton, Archbishop Edward L. Hanna, Rev. Charles A. Ramm, Randolph V. Whiting, Wallace M. Alexander, James K. Moffitt, J. W. Mailliard Jr., W. P. Fuller Jr., Jesse H. Steinhart, Mrs. William Palmer Lucas, Mrs. A. C. McLaughlin, Bishop Edward L. Parsons, Warren Olney Jr., Maurice C. Harrison, Mrs. Sabin Smith, Mrs. Edwin R. Sheldon, Chester H. Rowell, Paul Scharrenberg, M. C. Sloss.

HOKE LETTERS ASKED

Mrs. Nellie Hoke of Montara today petitioned for letters in the estate of her husband, John A. Hoke, who died on the coastside, October 13. The estate will not exceed $1100.

Receiver Asked For Lumber Co. In Action Here

Petition for the appointment of a receiver for Hobbs, Wall & Company, of San Francisco, one of the largest producers of redwood lumber, was filed here today with the superior court. E. T. Kruse and Parker S. Maddux, trustees, filed the petition.

It is charged that default has been made on a promissory note for $35,000 executed by the firm in San Francisco on October 16, 1931. W. J. Hotchkiss, president of the concern, and Stanley Pedder, secretary, executed the note with Miss L. M. Reincke.

A deed of trust covering large timber acreages near the county Memorial Park was executed to assure payment of the note. The value of this land, it is said, has depressed to an estimated $25,000. The receiver would collect the rents, issues and profits accruing from the premises.

Hugh Goodfellow is attorney for the petitioning trustees.

Old Gazette Owner Passes Away, S. F.

John F. Sheehan, real estate operator, aged 61, passed away in San Francisco yesterday. He was a son of the late General J. F. Sheehan who owned and edited the Times-Gazette in the late eighties. He at one time owned the Sacramento Union and later came to San Francisco where he became a power in politics. The real estate man spent a portion of his boyhood in Redwood City and was widely known here over 25 years ago.

GETS FATHER'S ESTATE

New York Woman Inherits Lomita Park Fortune

Miss Lillian Sawin of New York City today filed for probate here the will of her father, William Grant Sawin, who died in Lomita Park, November 16. The estate will exceed $10,000.

Publisher of S. M. Times Is Death Victim

Horace W. Amphlett Dies Unexpectedly In Hotel Room

Services for Horace Amphlett, publisher of the San Mateo Times, who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the San Mateo lodgeroom of the Elks; thence to Saint Matthews' Catholic Church, where mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul commencing at 10:30 o'clock.

San Mateo civic and political circles were stunned Wednesday by the loss of one of their prominent leaders, Horace W. Amphlett, publisher of the San Mateo Times, who was found dead in his bed in a San Francisco hotel.

The publisher's death at the age of 42 cut short the career of a man whose leadership in public life was the result of his endeavors in the journalistic profession for nearly a quarter century.

Mr. Amphlett had attended a function at the Family Club in San Francisco Tuesday with Attorney Bradford Melvin, and left at 11 o'clock for the Hotel Sir Francis Drake.

Found by Maid

His death was discovered at 9 o'clock Wednesday when a telephone call from his newspaper office was not answered and a maid was sent to his hotel room.

A private physician was called and after a preliminary investigation determined that death was due to heart trouble. A deputy of Coroner T. W. Leland was assigned to investigate, however.

Mr. Amphlett is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nellie Amphlett; his father, Richard Amphlett, and three sisters, Mrs. John Hart Clinton, Miss Kathleen Amphlett and Miss Janet Amphlett.

Tributes Paid

Evidence of the respect in which the deceased publisher was held in this county was shown by the adjournment Wednesday of both departments of the superior court in his memory by order of Judges Maxwell McNutt and Franklin Swart.

Born in San Francisco, Mr. Amphlett came down the peninsula after the earthquake and was graduated from the San Mateo high school in 1907. While still in his 'teens he became assistant postmaster of San Mateo and while in this capacity picked up an interest in newspaper work by helping Paul Pinckney with the old San Mateo Times during the latter's illness.

The young man gradually worked into a position of responsibility on the weekly and in 1918 purchased the paper, making it a daily in 1924. Two years later Amphlett bought the San Mateo News-Leader from Ed S. Riggins and merged it with the Times, which showed steady growth until in 1930 it moved into a new $350,000 plant.

Declined Public Office

During his career Amphlett had never held a public office and several times declined to run for state offices or for congress, but he was known for his support of many public enterprises and as an orator on many public occasions.

He served as chairman of the county Republican central committee for many years and among his fraternal affiliations was that with the Elks lodge, in which he was a past exalted ruler.

Valley Water Plan Wins Club Approval

Endorsement of the Central Valley Water Project was voted by members of the Redwood City Promotion Association at their meeting Wednesday in the Central school auditorium.

The association has considered the project at previous meetings and took the endorsement stand last night in balloting conducted by the president, W. H. Morrissey.

Election of officers for the association was set for December 12.

CRARY WILL FILED

Burlingame Woman's Estate Is Less Than $10,000

Petition for probate of the will of Mrs. Martha L. Crary of Burlingame, who died November 13, was filed today by her son, Charles J. Crary of Palo Alto. The estate will not exceed $10,000.

EDITOR'S DEATH MOURNED

Horace W. Amphlett, publisher of the San Mateo Times and widely known in civic and political affairs of the peninsula, who was found dead in his bed in a San Francisco hotel Wednesday. His death was due to natural causes.

KING CHARLES III OF SPAIN ONCE HAD PENINSULA RANCH; EIGHT FLAGS WAVED HERE

By WILLIAM VIELHAUER

Peninsulans come by their tastes for this garden spot royally.

Eight flags fought for the honor of waving proudly over California, and no less a notable than King Charles III of Spain once maintained a ranch on the San Francisco peninsula.

We have the word of Roscoe D. Wyatt, publicity director of San Mateo county, for it. Wyatt found the record of the king's ownership in searching old Mission archives and Spanish scrolls.

Bancroft's History of California tells about it in these words:

"The royal rancho had been founded here (near San Bruno) in 1777, with 115 head of cattle which were pastured on the hills about the presidio. In 1794 they numbered over 1,200. At the end of March the cattle were transferred to Monterey, except a few milch cows which the soldiers were allowed to keep.

"This change seems to have been made by order of the commandant general at the solicitation of the padres who represented that injury was done to the interests of the mission. Subsequently the garrison was obliged to obtain meat from Monterey.

"In 1796, at the suggestion of (commandant) Sal, (governor) Borica determined to re-establish a branch of the Rancho del Rey, and this was accomplished in September, 1797, 265 cattle being purchased from the missions and placed at Buriburi between San Bruno and San Mateo.

"The viceroy in March, 1799, ordered the rancho maintained, notwithstanding the opposition of the friars."

One of Many Flags

King Charles' ranch was established, of course, under the Spanish flag.

It was but one of the many flags that sought to rule the early California. The list of flags follows:

Spain, 1542-1822; England, 1579; Russian-American Company, 1809-1841; Buenos Aires, 1818; Augustin I, 1822; Mexico, 1822-1846; Bear Flag, 1846, and United States, 1846.

Strange flags and flag raising were serious affairs of those days, of which our royal peninsula landowner was no doubt aware. Witness this account of the raising of the Mexican flag at Monterey from the Hunt-Sanchez "A History of California" (pages 186-187):

"On September 26, 1822, the San Carlos sailed into the bay (Monterey) and anchored just out of reach of the guns of the fort, showing the apprehension that was still felt in regard to the political attitude of the Californians.

Mexican Emblem

"It was observed from the shore that a strange flag—green, white and red, with an eagle and crown in the center—fluttered from the masthead. Such a banner was not to be found in the chart of international colors, and the soldiers rushed to their guns. Sal, (governor) who recognized it as the flag of independent Mexico, calmed the fears of the people. As the imperial banner of Mexico was unfurled to the breeze, it was greeted with the thunder of artillery, the noise of drums and fife, and the shouts of the multitude: Viva la Independencia Mexicano, Viva de Emperator Augustin I."

Sometimes the flag raising was hastily done and proved to be a serious error.

History records such a bull by Commander Jones of the United States Navy, who, in 1842, took possession of Monterey, raised the Stars and Stripes and proclaimed California a territory of the United States.

But the next day he discovered that he was in error; that he was not at war with Mexico at all, and extended a most gracious apology.

Co. Teachers' Ass'n Selects Its Officers

F. M. Stanger of San Mateo Junior College was re-elected president of the San Mateo County Teachers' Association, Henry C. Hall of San Bruno was elected vice president, and Miss Marie Traynor of the Daly City elementary school was chosen secretary-treasurer at a business session here Monday in connection with the annual teachers' institute held at Sequoia Union High School.

Nearly 700 teachers of the county gathered in Redwood City for the opening of the three-day institute, and today and tomorrow they were to attend meetings of the bay section of the California Teachers' Association in San Francisco and Oakland. General and section conferences were arranged at both cities, and among the widely known speakers was Mark Sullivan, journalist, who was to speak at Oakland this morning and at San Francisco this afternoon.

At the business session of the county association, a resolution was adopted thanking Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools, for her work during the year and calling upon a special committee to express the association's gratitude in some definite form.

The new board of directors was not announced. Its members are appointed by the president, subject to the ratification of the governing council.

At separate meetings yesterday morning, the elementary teachers under the chairmanship of John Gill, superintendent of schools here, discussed the new state series arithmetic, while Homer Martin of San Mateo presided over the high school section in a discussion of changes in cirricula.

Speakers in the afternoon were Dr. J. C. Almack of Stanford University and L. H. Henderson of the county board of education, while in the morning the health section was addressed by Dr. Elmer Staffelbach of San Jose State Teachers' College.

Among the local teachers presiding over sections were Miss Cora Clute, Mrs. Dorothy Higgins, Miss Gene Nagel, Miss Dolores Lyons and Superintendent Gill.

Musical numbers were presented by the Sequoia choral classes under the direction of Otis Carrington.

BERTUCCI DECREE ASKED

Mrs. Joyce F. Bertucci today filed suit for divorce from John Bertucci on the ground of extreme cruelty. They were married in Newark, July 7, 1930, and separated November 27, last. A. S. Fiore is counsel.

Local Hunters Find Remains Of Young Hart

Harold E. Stephens, L. L. Dalve Make Discovery

Two Redwood City duck hunters, Leonard L. Dalve, surveyor, of 628 Maple street, and Harold E. Stephens, materials man, of 174 Jeter street, ended the 11-day search for the body of Brooke Hart, 22-year-old San Jose kidnap-murder victim, when they recovered the youth's corpse between 8 and 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

Finding of the body precipitated the lynching of J. M. Holmes and Thomas Thurmond at San Jose Sunday night.

The body was found floating in the southern San Francisco bay waters one half mile south of the San Mateo-Hayward bridge and one mile off the Alameda county shore.

The body was first sighted by the two men as they rowed out into the bay from the Alameda shore in their tiny skiff. They at first thought it was a seal, but upon closer examination suddenly realized that they had come upon the remains of the youth who has been sought relentlessly since November 9, the night he disappeared from San Jose.

Search of the bay waters continued without a let-up from November 16, the day of the capture of J. M. Holmes and Thomas Thurmond, confessed slayers, until Saturday noon, when it was temporarily halted because of the heavy "Big Game" traffic over the San Mateo bridge.

Dalve and Stephens rowed to the youth's corpse, carefully wrapped a canvass about it, and then towed the remains of the wealthy young man to the Alameda side. Stephens then made his way to shore, rushed to a telephone and excitedly notified Sheriff M. B. Driver of Alameda county of the find.

Deputy Sheriff Grover Mull, formerly police chief of Atherton, hastened to the bridge. He found Dalve guarding the body.

Young Hart's body was removed to the Pratt Mortuary at Hayward, where officials of four counties, including Sheriff James J. McGrath, quickly gathered.

Identification could not be established immediately because of the condition of the body.

Sheriff William Emig of San Jose arrived shortly with Charles O'Brien Jr., San Jose candy man's son and close friend of Young Hart. O'Brien reluctantly looked upon the mutilated form of the slain youth. He could not positively identify it, but said:

"The teeth make me sure that is poor Brooke's body."

R. C. MAN TELLS OF FINDING BODY

Here is the story of Harold E. Stephens, 174 Jeter street, Redwood City materials man, telling of the finding of the body of Brooke Hart, 22-year-old San Jose kidnap victim, Sunday morning. Stephens was on a duck hunt with Leonard L. Dalve, surveyor, of 628 Maple street, when Hart's body was found:

By HAROLD E. STEPHENS

For many years, ever since I was a youngster, I have been hunting ducks around the bay. I am well acquainted with the bay shore, on both sides. In many years of paddling over the marshlands I have seen many bodies recovered by others—but this is my first actual experience.

Planned Search

Leonard Dalve has been my companion on many duck hunting expeditions. Together we left Redwood City at daybreak in a small boat, and started for the Alameda shore. Our chief concern was ducks—but we also kept an eye out for the body of young Hart.

We were on our way to the bridge, where the ducks were thick, when, at about 9 o'clock, we sighted something that looked like a body.

We were skeptical. The form lay in precisely the same spot where we had been fooled on Wednesday. We had seen seagulls circling above the spot and rowed to it. We found that somebody with a weird sense of humor had constructed a dummy figure out of boards, mud and gunny sacks. It had apparently fooled the seagulls, and it had certainly fooled us.

No Hoax

In spite of that experience, we decided to investigate again yesterday. We pulled up to the spot—about a half mile south of the Alameda end of the bridge. This time it was no hoax. There was the body—answering, as far as we could determine, all published descriptions of the kidnap victim.

We placed ropes around the body and brought it ashore. Then we communicated with Alameda

4 ARE KILLED IN TERRIFIC COLLISION ON BAYSHORE

Automobiles Crash After Big Game Parties; Seven Injured

WITH the last echoes of the merriment which marked their celebration of the "Big Game" sounding in their ears, a Stanford football star, a film actress, a sorority girl and a San Francisco salesman, went to their deaths early Sunday in a terrific head-on crash of two automobiles north of Burlingame. Their deaths brought the peninsula highway toll to 64 for the year.

The dead:

Bruce Tarver, 21, substitute guard on the Stanford University football eleven and son of Judge B. E. Tarver of Santa Ana. He was a senior student at Stanford and was a member of Zeta Psi fraternity.

Miss Gladys McClure, 18-year-old Beverley Hills actress, known to the screen as Linda March. She was a sister of Adrienne Ames, film actress, who wired from Florida to have the body sent to Fort Worth, Tex., the family home.

Dorothy Karr, 18, freshman student at Stanford. She was the daughter of Judge Frank Karr, vice-president and chief counsel of the Pacific Electric Company of Los Angeles and Southern California counsel for the Southern Pacific Company.

Al D. Racey, 28, salesman, of 450 Second avenue, San Francisco.

Seven additional persons, riding in the two cars, were injured:

Ruth Stewart, 1403 Clay street, San Francisco, fractured leg and lacerations.

Maxine Tallman, 220 Ashbury street, San Francisco, face and body lacerations.

Charles E. Clotere, salesman, 1111 Munich street, San Francisco, cuts about face and hands.

Dorothy Clotere, his wife, lacerations and internal injuries.

Don B. Tatum, Stanford student, and former freshman football star, 929 St. Andrew's place, Los Angeles, possible fractured skull.

F. G. Francis, salesman, 829 Fell street, San Francisco, body lacerations, internally hurt.

Elton O. Smith, salesman, 1111 Munich street, San Francisco, facial lacerations, internally hurt.

Tarver, Miss McClure and Miss Karr were riding with Tatum and were coming south on the Bayshore highway from a "Big Game" party in San Francisco at the time of the accident.

Racey, driving his own car north, was returning with a party from a peninsula home where the "Big Game" had been celebrated.

The collision occurred on a long, wide curve in the Bayshore highway just north of Burlingame. Skid marks, police say, indicated that the accident occurred in about the center of the highway.

Both cars were demolished and Racey's burst into flames. Passing cars halted and motorists help extricate the dead and injured. Miss Karr and Miss McClure were pronounced dead upon arrival at the Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo. Racey was also killed San Mateo hospital six hours later. outright, and Tarver died at the Tatum, authorities said, would probably be charged with manslaughter for the deaths of his three companions.

The California Automobile Association took immediate steps today to put an end to the mounting toll of peninsula highway accidents.

Another automobile accident that apparently followed a "Big Game" celebration resulted in the arrest on reckless driving charges of Louis William Foster, Stanford University student.

He was fined $10 and his license was suspended for 90 days.

Foster's car overturned three times and plunged over an embankment one mile south of Mills Field yesterday morning. Foster and his two companions, Mary Haylet, 18, and Louise Martin, 19, both Stanford co-eds, were cut and bruised.

Foster, a Sigma Nu fraternity member, is registered at Stanford from Newberry, Mich.

$22,500 Given Woman Bereft By Auto Crash

Damages of $22,500 were awarded last week by Superior Judge McNutt to Mrs. Lyla B. Koenig, 44, of 528 Edinburg street, San Mateo, for the death of her husband, Carl W. Koenig, 43, who lost his life in one of the many fatal crashes on the Bayshore highway this year.

It was one of the largest awards ever made in San Mateo county.

The sum was assessed against Arthur Reynolds, Hillsborough resident and a vice-president of the Bank of America in San Francisco, and his chauffer, Frank Tricker.

Koenig met his death August 30 when his car, coming south, and Reynold's car, going north, collided on the Bayshore highway at the Southern Pacific shops. Tricker was at the wheel of the banke.'s car and was on his way to San Francisco to pick up Reynolds.

Reynold's 12-cylinder car, and Koenig's machine were rent asunder by the impact. Tricker, running late, told authorities that he had applied his brakes when some cars stopped suddenly before him and that he lost control.

Koenig died of shock and hemorrhages following a fracture of his skull and multiple fractures of his daby.

Tricker was charged with reckless driving and was given a 60-day suspended sentence by Justice of the Peace Edward Farrell. The widow had asked that no action be taken against him. The chauffeur had not been drinking prior to the accident.

Mrs. Koenig asked $76,100 on behalf of herself and daughter, Dorothea, 19, San Mateo Junior College girl. Her attorneys, Louis Oneal and Maurice Rankin of San Jose, waived a jury, and Judge McNutt heard the evidence in a one-day trial.

It is reported that J. Hampton Hoge, attorney for the defendants, had offered $15,000 or $20,000 in settlement of the widow's suit.

Koenig was an office manager and estimator for the Pacific Manufacturing Company of Santa Clara.

26 Are Granted Citizenship at Court Hearing

Twenty-six candidates were granted American citizenship at the naturalization class Wednesday in the court of Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt and were greeted at exercises arranged for the occasion by the Gen. George S. Evans Relief Corps.

Following an examination by William J. Kane of San Francisco, a welcoming address was given by the Rev. C. H. Gatchell of the First Baptist Church on the subject, "Patriotism and Loyalty."

Mrs. Miles A. Sharkey, patriotic instructor of the corps, was in charge of the ceremony, which took place in the presence of the traveling flag of the Woman's Relief Corps, which is now in custody of the General Evans corps.

Those granted citizenship were: Donald MacDonald, Agnes Marie Paolino, Christina Centis, Josephine Marie Fanzone, Manuel Joaquin Frago and Isidoro Ibarra of Redwood City.

Antonio Cincera, Ernst Heurlin, Tekla Heurlin, Nels H. Nelson and Hilmer Nilsson of Menlo Park.

Kurt W. Schmidt, Woodside; Salvatore Cilia, Charles Fell, Patrick Byrne, Maurice Jones, Attilio Paulazzo, San Mateo; Urbano D'Andrea, James Farnis, San Bruno; Luigi Croce, Emilio Casanova, Costantino Barbano, Colma; Balduino Mazzanti, South San Francisco; Raymond Despres, Burlingame; Harold Seeley, Millbrae, and Mary J. Silva, Purissima.

Accused Motorist Pleads Not Guilty

Julio Camacho, 30, of 530 Manzanita street, an employe of the cement plant here, today had pleaded not guilty before Superior Judge Franklin Swart and will be tried December 7 on a charge of driving a motor car while allegedly intoxicated. He asked a jury trial.

Young O'Keefe Has Case Before Swart

C. E. Potter, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was found guilty in Judge Swart's court on Tuesday. He was admitted to probation for a year and his driver's license was suspended for twelve months.

He was defended by James T. O'Keefe Jr. This was the young man's first case in the superior court since his admission to the bar by the supreme court recently. He made an able defense for his client and at the conclusion of the case was complimented by the court for the efficient manner in which he handled the case.

On the Lynching

Many comments have been made by the people of California concerning the lynching of the two men at San Jose last Sunday for the brutal murder of Brooke Hart, the twenty-two-year-old businessman of that city. The vast number justify the hanging for the brutal murder of the young man for ransom. They believe that the dastardly, cold blooded crime called for such extreme measures, not only to mete out punishment to the perpetrators but to act as a deterrent in order to put a stop to kidnaping in California. A great many citizens censure those who took part in the lynching, declaring the law should have taken its course and that mob violence should not have been used. They deplore the lynching as barbarism.

Governor James Rolph is applauded for his announcement in justifying the act of the people of San Jose while from some sources he is scored for his statements appearing in the daily press for not upholding the law. The governor would have been criticized, no matter what stand he took in the matter, so he took the side that condemned the kidnaper, the worst criminal in the calendar of crime. Governor Rolph will lose no political prestige on account of the position he took for opinion is too widely diversified.

Time Will Tell

Now we will see what "local talent" will do as city manager of Oakland. Carr's discharge has been made final and a new man named. It may be that the new man will play politics and be amenable to the wishes of those with the appointing power, though politics is not supposed to enter into the work of a city manager, business qualifications coming first. But Oakland wanted a change, as indicated by the election a few months ago, and now they have got one. Time will tell just how good a swap has been made by the council.

CAPT. MACAULEY DECLINES TO DROP PLAN TO RESIGN

Inability to reconsider his resignation as county relief director was expressed Monday by Capt. Edward Macauley when the San Mateo county emergency relief committee called upon him at his Hillsborough home and presented a resolution of regret on the termination of his services.

Macauley himself said that he did not like to leave the emergency work he has been engaged in, but that he could not refuse the offer of a position with the civil works administration in San Francisco as he is a personal friend of President Roosevelt.

Sam D. Merk, acting director of unemployment relief, presented Macauley with a resolution, which declared, in part:

"The San Mateo county emergency relief committee is cognizant of the efficient and thorough manner in which the unemployment relief problems of this county have been administered by Captain Macauley.

"This committee feels that the acceptance of this resignation at this time would deprive the county of a man whose devoted service is so necessary in view of the greatly enlarged scope of the relief program."

Macauley's resignation was accepted by the supervisors with regrets on Monday.

Merk, as temporary director, announced today that a concerted effort was being made to put 1,646 men to work by December 4 on civil works projects to be financed by the federal government.

Locally, 40 men are now engaged in improvements on the nine-acre park at Emerald Bowl. Underbrush is being cleared away, grading is being done, a road is being built and a parking area is being provided. Civil works funds will pay the wages.

Forty additional men are engaged in park and road work and in cleaning up lots, City Manager

Fred Kreiss was the unfortunate victim of a runaway accident last Monday. His horse and rig was tied to a post in front of the Pioneer Brewery and he essayed to get onto the vehicle without unhitching the animal when it made a mad plunge breaking the rope and ran down the county road towards Fair Oaks. The driver was thrown out and had his face badly scratched.

The extent of the oyster industry in San Mateo county can be gauged from the fact that during the past month no less than one hundred carloads of young oysters were shipped from the East for transplanting in the oyster beds of the Morgan Oyster Company which are located on the shores of the bay opposite this city.

county authorities. After several hours, the body was definitely identified as Hart's.

Our morning's hunting was gone—as far as ducks are concerned. But they tell us that we are entitled to a reward of $500.

RECALLS EARLIER DROWNING

Happiness and sorrow were mingled for Mrs. Annie L. Dalve, 628 Maple street, when the report came to her that her son, Leonard L. Dalve, had found the body of Brooke Hart, San Jose kidnap victim.

Mrs. Dalve was happy because her boy had a part in ending the agonizing ordeal of Mr. and Mrs. Alex J. Hart, parents of the boy, in the long wait for the recovery of the body.

But she was made sorrowful by the memory that her own husband, Lars S. Dalve, had met his death by drowning in Redwood creek.

"My husband, Lars, was drowned in Redwood creek," she said. "We had missed him 18 hours before his body was found and his death made known to us. The anguish of those 18 hours of torment was so etched upon my memory that a mere reminder of the tragedy is exceedingly painful.

"How much more ghastly has been the experience of the poor Hart boy's people—waiting for days, and then long weeks; hoping against hope, and finally meeting with such frightful news!

"I am indeed most happy that my boy had a hand in terminating the agonizing uncertainty. I feel that those bereaved parents and I have a bond of sympathy."

MRS. BLOCK TO READ "OH, WILDERNESS"

Mrs. Jean Block of San Francisco will read Eugene O'Neil's "Oh, Wilderness" when the Peninsula Chapter of Hadassah have a "Supply Day" December 4. The affair is scheduled for 2 o'clock at the Redwood City Woman's Club with the San Jose Chapter of Hadassah as honor guests at a Chanukah tea following the meeting at which members will donate linens and hospital supplies for the needy in Palestine.

Joseph Marks of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music has arranged a group of piano selections for the afternoon program at which Mrs. J. Jacobi, vice president, will preside, due to the illness of Mrs. Walter Barusch, president.

Assisting Mrs. Jacobi in receiving guests will be Mesdames S. Saltzan, M. Levy, C. Harris, J. Lindsey, S. A. Abrams, P. Frease, L. Jacobs and S. Gaffney.

The sewing group of the Peninsula Hadassah will meet at the home of Mrs. M. Levy, 938 Durlston road, Redwood City, Monday, December 4 at 10:30 o'clock.

DOCTOR INDICTED

Elderly Physician Accused of Slaying Son's Wife

CHICAGO, Nov. 29 (UP)—Dr. Alice Wynekoop, 62-year-old once prominent physician, who now lies broken in health and spirit in the county jail, was indicted on murder charges today in connection with the strange death of her daughter-in-law, Rheta.

The indictment was returned eight days after the young girl's body, a bullet in the heart, was found lying on an operating table in the basement of the gloomy Wynekoop home here.

The grand jury took no action in the case of Earl Wynekoop, husband of Rheta, who is held in the county jail on a charge of accessory before the fact of his wife's murder.

LABOR CAMP FOR COUNTY PARK OBTAINS APPROVAL

Establishment of a federal labor camp in Memorial Park was approved on Monday by the board of supervisors after a favorable report on the proposal was made by Capt. Edward Macauley, director of unemployment relief, who resigned from that post the same day.

The camp will take care of 55 homeless residents of San Mateo county. The first consignment of men went to the camp today, after the applicants had passed medical examinations.

Approval of the camp came after County Fire Warden Bert Werder had conferred with District Forester Frank Thompson of Palo Alto.

The men in the camp will earn 45 cents per hour for a 6-hour day, or $2.75 per day. This will amount to $13.50 per week, but the men must pay 50 cents per day for three meals for seven days, or $3.50, so that the men will net $10 per week.

The county must pay the $100 per month salary of the camp superintendent, and $200 additional camp expenses. It will get the work that the men do in exchange for this expense, while the wages paid the men will come from federal sources.

The camp was approved on motion of Supervisor John Poole of Redwood City.

Macauley Praised

Captain Macauley, as reported Saturday, has accepted a federal position with the civil works administration in San Francisco. He thanked the supervisors for the kindnesses shown him during his administration of the office of county director of unemployment.

Captain Macauley was in turn thanked by the supervisors for his untiring services in behalf of the jobless.

The resignation was accepted on motion of Supervisor Poole, and second of Supervisor Rosalie Brown, San Mateo.

Sam D. Merk, chairman of the citizens' plans and projects committee, of San Mateo, was named temporary director to succeed Macauley.

Complaint was made to the supervisors by District Attorney Edmund Scott that Louis Tournahu, San Bruno garbage disposer, is failing to live up to his agreement in the dumping of garbage at Lawndale. He was ordered before the board next Monday to show cause why his permit should not be revoked.

Plan Charity Day

The board approved a plan to stage a charity day race at Tanforn, and will ask the California Racing Commission to set the date for some Sunday in the near future. The plan comes from John Marchbank, well-known racing figure.

County unemployed would get 40 per cent of the receipts, the Red Cross, 20 per cent, and other agencies, including the Young Men's Christian Association, and the Girl and Boy Scouts, lesser amounts.

The South San Francisco Scavengers Company filed an application with the board for the right to collect garbage in three northern peninsula cities and to dispose of the refuse in the city dump east of South San Francisco.

Order Road Survey

The board, as requested by the San Mateo City Planning Commission, ordered a survey made of the proposed Junipero Serra boulevard route from Burlingame to Belmont.

The sum of $2,000 was voted by the board at Supervisor Albert Witt's request for the improvement of streets in Brisbane.

Permission to lay a pipe line along the Woodside road to supply the Menlo Country Club with gas was granted.

The Town of Lawndale approved the dumping of San Francisco garbage at Mills airport.

To Buy Equipment

The board authorized Purchasing Agent Ernest Werder to obtain prices on the shop equipment requested by County Engineer James S. James. Supervisor Poole suggested that some second hand machinery be obtained.

Rental of the garage property on Walnut street from William J. Dusel was approved by the board, the county to pay $75 per month for one year. This will become the county's central garage.

Purchase of $191 worth of floor covering for the county engineer's office was approved.

The board reduced the pay for installing and dismantling election booths from $5 to $3 to save $406 as recommended by County Manager Walter Kellogg.

Request of San Pedro Terrace property owners that the main Coast highway to Point San Pedro be widened was referred by the board to the plans and projects committee.

Menlo Park

On Sunday next the Presbyterian Church will celebrate its sixtieth anniversary, having been established in 1873. The church will hold special services in the afternoon at 3 o'clock when an interesting program will be rendered. The speakers include Judge Maxwell McNutt, whose grandfather, the late Judge Coon, was deacon of the church and often filled the pulpit in the absence of the minister. McNutt will give a history of the organization and relate his attendance when a boy. He often accompanied his relative to the service on Sundays, coming over the Santa Cruz road from the Coon home located near Coon's bridge that was named after the judge. The other speakers will be Mayor Weeden and Supervisor C. P. Cooley of San Jose, who also attended the edifice in his boyhood. Senator Stanford and Mrs. Stanford were patrons of the church, attending every Sunday for many years. The latter spent large sums in improving and building an addition to it. She also erected a residence for the minister on the east side of the highway nearly opposite the Menlo Theatre. It was an imposing structure occupied by the pastor. In days gone by other worshippers of note were Senator Felton, W. H. Adams, Charles Holbrook. This memorial service will be historical in character and will be attended by a large number who are anxious to learn the early history of the ancient church that was among the first to be established in the peninsula. Rev. Bone, the pastor, extends an invitation to all to be present.

Mayor W. H. Weeden and Chief of Police Tom Kearney attended a luncheon given by the Peace Officers' Association of Northern California at Wilson's in Palo Alto Thursday. Chief of Police Black of San Jose gave an interesting talk on "Criminal Types."

The Los Lomitas Parent-Teacher Association will hold their annual bazaar, carnival and dance at the Las Lomitas school auditorium Saturday, December 2. There will be a drawing for a hand-made quilt and a turkey.

After the "Big Game" there was a family party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Roberts of Menlo Heights. Among those present were Mrs. Clarence Carpenter of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Walton of El Cajon, Captain and Mrs. E. Frederick of San Diego and Lieutenant and Mrs. E. D. Avary (Nancy Roberts) of March Field. Lieutenant and Mrs. Avary will remain with the latter's parents until after Thanksgiving.

The bazaar which was to be given on December 2 by the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary has been postponed to December 16 so as not to conflict with the P.-T. A. carnival-bazaar.

Clarissa Ross was elected first vice-president to fill the unexpired term of the present vice-president in the American Legion Auxiliary.

The next American Legion Auxiliary County Council will be held in San Mateo Friday, December 15 at 8 p. m.

James Beardsley is recovering from an operation on his eyes performed at the Letterman Hospital in San Francisco. He had almost become totally blind but the operation has restored the sight of one eye and hope is held out that the other optic will be saved. Mr. Beardsley is a former resident of Menlo Park and is a large property owner. He is a World War veteran.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME

SAN MATEO, Nov. 27.—The home of Emil Zwierlein, San Mateo department store owner, was damaged to the extent of $500 by a fire here yesterday. The fire is believed to have been caused by a burning candle left by Zwierlin after he had repaired the porch.

FIREMEN TO HOLD DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

The Redwood City Volunteer Fire Department will hold a dance Friday at 8:30 p. m. in the Central firehouse auditorium. Admission will cost 25 cents, and the public is invited.

BOYS HOLD FOOTBALL MEET AT SEQUOIA IN 'Y' AFFAIR

Boys of the various clubs under the program of the Young Men's Christian Association are enjoying a series of games in football and basketball during the vacation period.

Monday morning the Fremont Pioneer 130s of Palo Alto defeated the Bret Harte Pioneers of Ravenswood by a score of 27 to 13 at the Sequoia high school gym. The Furukawa brothers for the Fremonts and Carl Isaksen for the Bret Hartes were high point men.

The Daniel Boone Pioneers of Las Lomitas 100-pound team was defeated by the Fremont Pioneers, 12 to 6.

The new George Williams Pioneers of Redwood City lost a practice game to an all-star pioneer midget team, 13 to 6.

Monday afternoon was given over to football at the Sequoia high school turf. The Apache Friendly Indians of Atherton tied the Algonquin Friendly Indians of Washington school in the last few minutes, 6 to 6.

The Sioux Friendly Indians of Lincoln school were defeated by the Iroquois Friendly Indians of McKinley school by a score of 26 to 0.

The Algonquins and Iroquois played a second short game in which the former won 8 to 6.

Roy A. Hohberger, local Y.M.C.A. secretary was in charge of the play, in which close to 150 boys participated.

Drunken Driving Charge Is Placed

James Byrne, 28, of 413 Milton avenue, San Bruno, a broommaker, was charged with driving an automobile while allegedly intoxicated in a complaint signed today by State Officer Frank Chevalier. Byrne was arrested Sunday on the Bayshore highway at Brisbane when his weaving operation of the car attracted the officer's attention.

Dr. Edwin Bartlett, South San Francisco physician, reported Byrne as "markedly alcoholic." He had been to a christening, he told Deputy District Attorney Harold Anderson.

Whittell Fortune Fight Transferred

The battle over the millions left by George Whittell, San Francisco lumberman and realty owner, was transferred today to the federal courts by Superior Judge Deasy in San Francisco.

The case is that of Alfred Whittell against his foster brother, Capt. George Whittell of Woodside, for an accounting of an estimated $10,000,000 fortune. Alfred Whittell asserts that he should have inherited one-half of the fortune now controlled by Captain Whittell.

Three Deaths Probed By South S. F. Jury

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—A verdict of death by suicide was returned today by a coroner's jury investigating the hanging of George H. Delaney, itinerant, whose body was found yesterday in an abandoned building on the waterfront here.

The jury, investigating the death of Michael Kelly, unemployed stableman, whose body was found behind the Tanforan Hotel this morning, returned a verdict of death due to heart disease.

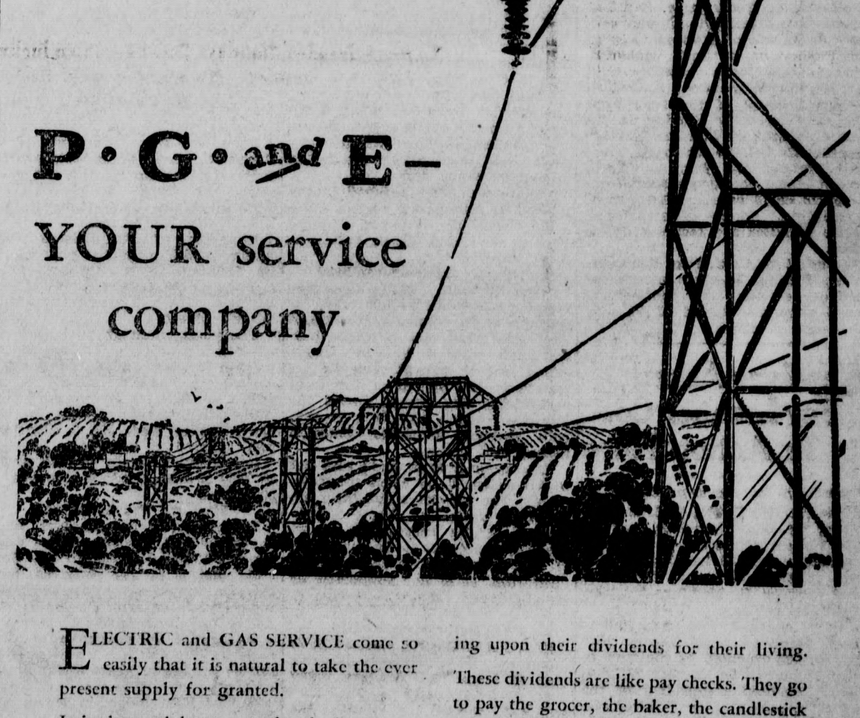
A third death investigated was that of Adolf Hartzel, Millbrae man, who was run over by the car of Carl Roach, but an open verdict was returned.

WESLEYAN CLUB HAS MONTHLY MEETING

Forty members of the Wesleyan Club were in attendance at the monthly social meeting of the group Monday in the Methodist church hall.

On the entertainment committee in charge of games and refreshments were Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Bogie, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Altman and Mr. and Mrs. Amon M. Cottingham.

Pres. Clarence Mossman appointed on the committee for the holiday party December 29 Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Dimick, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Chester O. Ellingson.



ELECTRIC and GAS SERVICE come so easily that it is natural to take the ever present supply for granted.

It is there, right at your hand, the instant you want it.

Isn't it true that you rarely think of what stands behind the button or the valve?

Yet a great and intricate system of power houses and power lines, of gas mains and distributing pipes, representing more than $700,000,000 of investment, has been built just to put that easy, dependable service at your finger tips.

That is an enormous investment, but it is not any one man's money, nor the money of any score of men. More than 90,000 persons, 70,000 of them living in California, have put their savings into this business.

They are just the average run of folks, industrious, thrifty, many of them depending upon their dividends for their living.

These dividends are like pay checks. They go to pay the grocer, the baker, the candlestick maker; they help to keep things going in every community and in every line of business.

Also it takes a regular army of workers to make sure you have that service. P. G. and E. employs 10,600 men and women. They make their homes in every part of Northern and Central California.

Their wages amounting this year to more than 15 million dollars, flow into stores, factories, homes, theaters, quickening business and stimulating trade in more than 600 cities and towns.

Our service goes to 1,250,000 customers. It is always the best service that a faithful and conscientious organization can give.

We are in California . . . of California . . . for California.

MONTGOMERY WARD

More Transit Committees Are Chosen

Rapid Transportation On Peninsula Aim Of Groups

Agreement that five committees are necessary to bring speedier transportation facilities to the San Francisco peninsula was reached Monday by the special committee appointed recently by the San Mateo County Federation of Improvement Clubs and Associations.

The committee met at the courthouse and because of the delay in the arrival of President W. H. Morrissey, named George J .Davis of Millbrae as chairman. Others on the committee are Edward Holl, Joseph Brodie, C. W. Bowman and Mrs. Mona Christensen. The standing committee on transportation consists of Paul Lyman, George Chiossi and G. O. Rich.

Five additional committeemen were named to assist the general committee, and included: Percy Shaw, South San Francisco; George Whitworth, Menlo Park; Fred W. Metcalf, San Mateo; C. H. Steere, North Palo Alto, and E. B. Hinman, as representative of the chambers of commerce.

Personnel of committees was not determined upon as this will be discussed in consultation with chambers of commerce groups. It was agreed, however, that at least five committees will be needed: Contact, publicity, terminal, technical, and highway.

Tentative chairmen for these committees were suggested as follows:

Percy Shaw, terminal; Sam Winklebleck, publicity; Ronald Campbell, highway; C. R. Scott, technical, and the contact committee in full: F. W. Metcalf, chairman; James B. Howell, George K. Whitworth, Mrs. E. L. Kilbourne and T. Louis Chess.

Those who discussed the problem last night include Howard I. Wood of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce; L. Herbert Harris of the Burlingame chamber; Winfield Scott of Atherton; Morrissey, and George B. Hanson, district passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, who told of the interest of that company in the problem.

Bowling Green Construction Work To Start

PALO ALTO, Nov. 29—Indications are that work will commence early next week on the construction of a bowling green on the site of the old Palo Alto Hospital at Cowper street, Churchill avenue and Embarcadero road. The green will be 120 feet square.

As a preliminary step the spot laid out for it will be excavated to a depth of two or three feet. Then tile for drainage will be laid. A layer of gravel will cover the tile, and sediment soil specially prepared will be used to fill the hole.

The cost of creating the green is expected to be nominal in view of the ready availability of labor from the ranks of the local unemployed. Sufficient tile for the drainage has been secured at a cost of $10. The seed will be the major expense. It will also be necessary to purchase a small amount of lumber and other accessory equipment.

Because of the necessity of having a level, even surface, much care has to be given to the cultivation of the lawn. Several months will be required to put the green in proper shape for use.

The work will be done by the city's department of public works.

San Carlos Grid Team Is Winner

The San Carlos Hopi Friendly Indians defeated the Sioux Friendly Indian football team at the Sequoia high school field yesterday afternoon by a score of 12 to 0.

With the score standing 12 to 0 against them at the beginning of the second half, the Sioux started a drive from their own six-yard line to the Hopi four-yard line, where they found a stone-wall defense.

In a second game the newly organized Crow Friendly Indians of Jefferson school, handicapped by the absence of several of their regulars, were defeated by the strong Iroquois Friendly Indian aggregation by a score of 24 to 0.

Doubles Finals In Handball Set For Next Sunday

Robert DeKruze won runner-up honors in singles of the handball tournament which is being promoted by the local Young Men's Christian Association when he defeated William Dolan Sunday at the high school courts, 21-17, 21-20.

In the semi-finals of doubles play the Bedbury-McDowell team was pressed to the limit to win against the Nicoli-Keyser combination, 21-19, 21-20.

In the second match Munday-Dolan defeated Hayes-Hernandez, 21-6, 21-16.

The doubles finals will be played Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at the high school courts. All interested in this sport are invited to be on hand.

A survey conducted by the chamber of commerce at Nashville, Tenn., showed traffic accidents were most numerous during October, November and December.

Herrscher Estate Valued at $512,475

Mrs. Erna Herrscher, former wife of Attorney Edmund Herrscher of Hillsborough, who died suddenly in Paris last March, left an estate valued at $512,475, according to Inheritance Tax Appraiser R. F. Mogan. Four attacks have been made on her will by relatives who charge that she was not in her right mind when the will was written.

Herrscher is now the husband of the former Fannie Mae Howard, divorced wife of the automobile magnate.

HEIRS SEEK ESTATE

Will Leaves Holdings to Wife Who Died Before Mate

Nine heirs today petitioned for probate of the will of Lloyd Evans, who died October 24, and have asked Public Administrator J. C. McGovern to act. Evans left his estate to his wife, Iva B. Evans, who preceded him in death. The will was written on September 13, 1915.

Author Defendant In Damage Action

Stewart Edward White, noted Hillsborough author, was named defendant today in a $15,400 damage suit filed by Pompeo Giudani, 216 South Fremont street, San Mateo, for injuries incurred last December 8 when two trucks collided in San Mateo.

Giudani was riding on one of the trucks as a guest of Charles Hull, an employe of White, according to the complaint. White's truck and one driven by Ed Kronquist, 312 Catalpa street, San Mateo, collided. Kronquist was named as a defendant.

The plaintiff incurred a 10-inch laceration on the scalp, a 12-inch laceration of one leg, and suffered from loss of memory and dizziness. Edmund Scott and Louis Dematteis are attorneys for the plaintiff.

An autogiro that will change its direction by the tilting of the rotor shaft, and which dispenses with ailerons, elevators and rudder, was recently demonstrated by Juan de la Cierva.

Merk Endorsed As Director of Co. Relief Work

Unanimous recommendation that Sam D. Merk, former San Mateo publisher, be appointed director of the San Mateo County Emergency Relief Committee by the board of supervisors, was voted today by the committee at its regular meeting in San Mateo.

Merk would succeed Capt. Edward Macauley, who resigned to accept a civil works administration position. Merk has been temporarily appointed by the board.

Robert J. Koshland of Hillsborough, vice-chairman of the relief committee, was elected chairman to succeed Merk.

HURT IN AUTOMOBILE

Frank Amaral, 27, of 1473 Orchard street, San Leandro, was treated at a San Mateo hospital Monday for injuries incurred in an automobile accident on the Half Moon Bay road near the Skyline boulevard.

Henry Maas, 65, retired Redwood City seaman, left an estate estimated between $20,000 and $25,000, according to his will filed for probate today.

The estate is left two-thirds to Miss Kate Johanne Maas of Elsfleth, Germany, and one-third to Mrs. Hanna G. Stover, of the same city. Both are daughters.

Mrs. Margaret Eitner of Dumbarton Oaks, a neighbor, was left Maas' home in that tract. She was rewarded for kindnesses shown the elderly man.

The Bank of America is named executor of Maas' will, written on October 19, 1932. Maas died here November 25. Ross & Ross represent the petitioner.

CALLS OFF DIVORCE

Mrs. Margaret Pederson today asked the dismissal of her divorce suit from Peter Pederson of San Bruno, whom she sued several weeks ago.

Berkeley Tennis Star Threatened On Boston Stay

BOSTON, Nov. 29 (UP)—Helen Jacobs of California, national woman's tennis champion, has received several "threatening and obscene" letters at a Melrose home where she is spending the winter, it was learned today.

The champion was scheduled to confer with Assistant United States Attorney Hugo Bagnulo here this afternoon in an effort to bring about the arrest of the blackmailers.

Miss Jacobs, whose home is in Berkeley, has been a guest of Miss Alona Friend of Melrose.

Just when the writer of the scurrilous and menacing notes began sending them to Miss Jacobs was not revealed but they were of such a nature that she communicated with federal authorities at Washington.

Baden Kennel Club Case Is Continued

The application of District Attorney Edmund Scott for a temporary restraining order to close the Baden Kennel Club, which shut down on its own accord several weeks ago, was continued for one week Monday by Superior Judge Franklin Swart.

Meanwhile the ruling of Superior Judge William James of San Jose on the demurrer to the complaint of Scott for a permanent injunction closing the track is being awaited.

KELLOGG BACK ON JOB

County Manager Walter Kellogg, still in pain after several operations on his eye during the past week, returned to his desk Monday.

County Gets $1280 To Support Orphans

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 29 (AP)—San Mateo county received in June, 1933, from the state $1,280 toward the support of 128 orphans, half-orphans and dependent children in the county.

During the year the state granted an average of $1,900,000 in aiding children under 16 years of age. A sharp increase of 1,376 in the number of youngsters receiving this aid was reported today by Mrs. Rheba Crawford Splivalo, director of social welfare to Governor Rolph.

The total number receiving state aid in June was 15,481 and the cost of the program to the state for June was set at $158,410. Under the law an allowance of $10 per month may be granted to dependent children. In some counties the state allowance is augmented by local funds.

WAGON DRIVER SUES

Teamster Seeks $10,656 for Injuries From Automobile Collision

William H. Barbee, East Palo Alto teamster, today filed a damage suit for $10,656 against Forest Adams, 1540 Pine street, San Francisco, for injuries incurred October 20 when his team of horses and Adams' car collided on the Bayshore highway in the southern county area.

NEW PASTOR INSTALLED

SAN MATEO, Nov. 27.—The Rev. W. C. Sample, new pastor of the Abyssinia Baptist Church, was installed at services held Sunday afternoon. The Rev. G. J. Wildy, pastor of Allen's Temple, Oakland, presided. There will be a program and reception tonight.

Nearly 900 different types and sizes of electric light bulbs are made by one American manufacturer.

Officers for Improvement Ass'n Named

Residents of the Emerald lake and adjoining districts west of Redwood City met last week in the social hall of George King's home on Summit drive and completed plans for the organization of an improvement association.

Officers and directors elected were president, G. Chevassus; vice-president, W. H. Moulthrop; secretary-treasurer, W. A. Harper; directors, A. W. Pike, G. A. Stryker, Guy Farwell, W. A. Ebner, A. Jonsen, G. C. King, Frank Muller and Miss Lillian O'Neill.

These officers will meet shortly to formulate the policies and determine the scope of activities of the new organization which temporarily has been called the West of Redwood Improvement Association.

The enthusiasm shown at Friday night's meeting indicates that the association will soon become an active and important factor in the civic affairs of the district.

All residents of the Emerald lake and adjoining districts are invited to affiliate themselves with the new association, which is to be non-social in nature and devoted exclusively to furthering and protecting the interests of all property owners in the district.

Preparing Program For S. M. Air Show

The partial program of air races, speed dashes, sportsman pilots' events, stunting exhibitions, and men and women's flying derbies, for the Pacific International Air Pageant, at Curtiss-Wright flying field, San Mateo, December 16 and 17, has been announced by Capt. Frank A. Flynn, technical director of the two-day aerial meet.

Many aviators are to compete in the air show, including United States and foreign record-holders. Approximately $10,000 in prizes will be awarded for speed dashes, record attempts, sportsman pilot competitions, stunting exhibitions and endurance flights.

The meet is to be staged under the auspices of the National Aeronautic Association.

A specially-constructed fence, consisting of 8000 feet of 15-foot high side walls, used at the national air races in Cleveland and Chicago, will restrict view of the stunting, closed course air races and other events to spectators within the flying field.

BUYS COAST LAND

Radio Firm Locating West of San Bruno, Belief

Indicating possible construction of a new wireless station on the coastside, Globe Wireless, Ltd., a Nevada corporation, has purchased two tracts fronting on the ocean, at Edgemar, west of San Bruno, from the Dollar Steamship Company, for $153,000. This is shown in a deed filed at the recorder's office here.

LEVY WILL FILED

Late Merchant's Estate Left to His Widow

The will of Edmond B. Levy, San Mateo merchant, who died at his Hillsborough home November 7, was filed for probate in Redwood City superior court Saturday.

The will, dated December 24, 1923, leaves the estate to the widow.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Peterson Denies Building Operations Without License

J. Arthur Peterson, 62, residing south of the city's limits near the Middlefield road, pleaded not guilty Monday before Justice of the Peace Edward McAuliffe to a charge of engaging in building contracting without a state license. Trial was set for December 5 at 2 p. m. and Peterson was released from the county jail on $100 bail.

TWO SLIGHTLY HURT

Single Traffic Mishap Occurs Here On Week-End

In the city's single accident despite the huge "Big Game" traffic, two Berkeley men incurred minor injuries here Saturday. S. J. Reader and John Young, both of Berkeley and riding with J. P. Hollins, San Francisco, suffered cuts and bruises. Hollins' car and that of Robert Ford, Monterey, collided on the Bayshore at Chestnut street.

COUNTY TAXES DUE

Delinquency Period Near at Hand, Collector Warns

County Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney today warned taxpayers that the first installment of 1933-34 taxes will become delinquent on December 5. After that date, 8 per cent penalty will be added, he said. Whisperings of a possible extension of the delinquency period are erroneous, McSweeney said, as this would require a special session of the legislature.

MAAS ESTATE FILED

The Bank of America today petitioned for special letters of administration in the estate of Henry Maas, retired seaman, who died here Saturday. The value of the estate is unknown.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILL AND/OR TO SET ASIDE ESTATE TO WIDOW.

NO. 6328

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN MATEO.

In the matter of the estate of GIUSEPPE GRECO, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that CATHERINE FERRARO, having filed in this Court her verified Petition praying for the issuance to her of Letters Testamentary on the estate of the above named Deceased, the hearing of the same has been fixed for Monday, the 11th day of December, 1933, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Courtroom of said Court, Department No. 2, at the Court House at Redwood City, in the County of San Mateo, State of California, and all persons interested in said estate are hereby notified then and there to appear and show cause, if any they have, why said Petition should not be granted and Letters Testamentary issued as prayed for.

And it further appearing by said verified Petition this day presented and filed by said petitioner, that it contains in its prayer an alternative prayer for an order of this Court to set aside the whole of the estate of said deceased to Provvidenza Greco, surviving widow of said deceased, in case the Court finds that the total value of the estate, over and above all liens and encumbrances of record at the date of the death of said deceased does not exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars; and it further appearing therefrom that said deceased died on or about the 18th day of October, 1933, leaving surviving him as his heirs at law and next of kin, his widow, Provvidenza Greco, and Palma Ferraro and Catherine Ferraro, his daughters, all of whom now reside in the City of Redwood City, County of San Mateo, State of California; and it further appearing therefrom that the net value of the whole estate of said deceased, over and above all liens and encumbrances, at the date of the death of said deceased, does not exceed the sum of Twenty-five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars and that said surviving widow has not other estate of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars in value.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that a hearing on the above mentioned petition will be held before said Superior Court, on the aforesaid date and said hour thereof, at the Courtroom of said Superior Court, in Department No. 2 thereof, in the City of Redwood City, County of San Mateo, State of California, when and where any and all persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why the whole of said estate should not be assigned for the use and support of the family of said deceased, subject to liens or encumbrances of record at the date of the death of said deceased.

Reference is hereby made to said Petition for further particulars.

Children Are Entertained by Rainbow Girls

Entertainment for the inmates of the Shriners' hospital for crippled children in San Francisco was provided by members of Redwood City Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Sunday.

A play by Eric Welsf, "Three of a Different Title," telling of children's adventures in a big city, was presented under the direction of Miss Charlotte Rider and Mrs. William J. Dusel, mother advisor of the assembly.

The cast wore costumes that amused the children and staged the play in a setting of portable scenery designed here. Taking part were the Misses Rider, Audrey Allen, Shirley Langford, Bertha Potts, Louise Bendeich, Ora Palmer and Mildred Tripp.

Scrap books and toys were presented to each child. The Rainbow girls had worked for several weeks making nearly 100 scrap books and gathering toys in a project supervised by Miss Dorothy Rundle.

The play will be repeated next Sunday for the children at the Stanford Convalescent Home on the Stanford campus.

AT NO-HOST PARTY FOLLOWING BIG GAME

Following the Big Game a no-host party was held at Topsy's at the Beach in San Francisco Saturday night by a group of young Redwood City people. Those attending were Miss Vera Waller and Miss Mary Bell of Redwood City, Miss Phyllis Blackington of Woodside, Mr. Jud Mak of Palo Alto, and Messrs. Walter and Robert Rodgers of Los Altos.

BOYS' CLUB HAS HIKE IN HILLS

The Crow Friendly Indians of the Jefferson school took a hike into the hills on Saturday with their leader, Homer Spellenberg. This club of boys, under the program of the Young Men's Christian Association, is but a few weeks old, but is entering into the club activities with enthusiasm.

Today the club is scheduled to play the Iroquois Friendly Indians of McKinley school in football at the high school field at 2:30 o'clock.

Boys' Conference Postponed a Week

The older boys' conference of the Young Men's Christian Association which was scheduled to be held at Stanford this coming week-end has been postponed one week to December 9 and 10 in order to make it possible to have a number of speakers on the program who will be unable to be present because of the holiday this week.

Among the speakers will be Almon Roth, H. C. Hand, Fred Hansen, and a number of the Stanford athletes.

This conference is open to all high school boys of this area.

Further information can be secured by getting in touch with Roy A. Hohberger, the local Y. M. C. A. secretary, at Redwood 974.
